Notes of Love

About Oliver Boito

Oliver grew up knowing he was always going to find the most reward focusing on creative pursuits. A keen artist and photographer, it was always music, however, that gave him his greatest personal creative enrichment, and a chance meeting with a performing arts school in the Midlands opened his eyes and heart to Musical Theatre.

From that very day, he began to compose a musical for the school to perform, and the bug bit hard!

Fast forward 20 years, he continued to write for musical theatre, and along the way, made some great friends in the industry, who both inspired him, and gave him unrivaled awe.

Notes Of Love is his maiden venture into releasing his music to the wider public, and was born as a collection of family and friends encouraged him to put some of his songs together, to orchestrate and record them with fantastic performers.

He reached out and found that his efforts were being welcomed and received by an incredibly talented collective of artists and musicians who all agreed to partake in the creation of 'Notes Of Love', helping a dream be realised.

Notes Of Love was written with love, performed with love and is offered to you in the hope that it may stir a feeling, evoke a memory and paint a picture that stays with you a while.

Oliver is delighted to present Notes Of Love, and his gratitude towards all the people who came together to make it happen will be forever unfaded.

I'll Always Stay

Performed by Stuart Matthew Price & Siubhan Harrison
Music & lyrics by Oliver Boito
Orchestration by Simon Nathan

She smiled at me and then my life was hers
She spoke with words that I could barely understand
Still I saw her soul

As time went by our days were spent as one
And quietly she grew to open up her heart
Then we fell in love....

Day after day, time passed me by
While we were worlds apart
Blinded by war, smoke filled the air
But it led us here

Maybe we were wrong
Maybe we were right
Answers only we can know

For somehow I found you at last
Calling my name across the lands
The world that I've left far behind
Will stay in my past, and change my life again

My hopes and dreams had never led me far
A life that kept me close to home
But stars aligned to bring this stranger here
And he loves me, the first to love me

Some how I found you at last
Calling my name across the land
The world that had seemed far away
Led me to you, and so we'll always stay

Mountains will talk and rivers may whisper
So let them be loud I pray

For somehow I found you at last
Calling my name across the land
A light that had seemed far away
Guiding me now
Showing me, leading me
Right here to you...
And here I'll always stay

You are the one
You have my heart and soul
I want to fly with you by my side
You are the light I need to guide

You are the one
You made my heart take flight
I'll only live, if you are with me
So spend eternity with me

I've Finally Met You

Performed by Oliver Savile
Music & lyrics by Oliver Boito
Additional arrangement by Joe Davison & Simon Nathan

*Sarah, it's me. It's Joe. Hey, how are you feeling?
I bought you some flowers today, hospital shop's finest!
You know what day it is today don't you?
No, it's ok, you keep resting. We can celebrate next year.
We'll dress up, and we can go to our restaurant.
Maybe you can wear that same dress?
You look so beautiful in that dress.*

From the moment I saw you
When your eyes met with mine, I knew
Life had changed in an instant
With that look you enthralled me
When you asked me the time and smiled
I was yours for the taking

London was raining, the noise overwhelming,
But all I could see was you.
Suddenly nothing else mattered at all
And I struggled to even breathe, but I said...

"It's quarter to six on the third of December
Not sure why I added the date in December
I was heading back home for a date with my cat
And I've only got food for one
Would you like to get coffee or I know this great place
Where the drinks are in jam jars and the jam's served on slate
I'm sorry, I'm rambling, 'cause I'm flustered as hell
Because, you see, I think I've finally met you"

So it took you a moment
I was sure I had crashed and burned
Beyond all recognition
Then I swear I heard laughter
As you told me to try again
And you patted my shoulder

What did I do to convince you
That I wasn't crazy, I'll never know
Taking a breath, I composed just a little
And managed 'Hey, my name's Joe'

And you said
"It's now ten to six on the third of December
The detail's important, could be one to remember
I was headed to work, but I left my watch home
And my phone died a while ago
Then I saw this man who looked kind and quite shy
And I thought I should ask him the time, don't know why
Now work can just wait, as my train's surely gone
Besides, you see, I more than think, I know I've finally.. "

Happy Anniversary, beautiful girl.

Sometimes

Performed by Sharon Sexton & Sooz Kempner
Music & lyrics by Oliver Boito
Orchestration by Oliver Boito & Simon Nathan

Giselle

Sometimes, when I look inside my mind,
I see part of me died,
When you left this world behind
Hearts cry out mournful songs of empathy
Life goes on, but not for me,
My days are clouded over with night
And I pray, you could be here

Holding me in your arms
Loving me the way you used to do
Wanting me like before
Missing you now that you've gone so far away
But you shall always remain in my heart

Delphine

Sometimes as look inside my mind,
I know that part of me died,
There will never be
A father who loved me
The way you used to do
I have lost, I have lost all I lived for
This pain will always be here
Life won't be the same

Delphine

Only when I've healed this aching heart
When my soul cries no more
Then can I spend this time apart
You'll never leave
Stay here with me

Giselle

How can I go on?
How can I live life
Without you by my side?
You will never leave me love
You will stay here

Alone

Performed by Rob Houchen
Music & lyrics by Oliver Boito
Orchestration by Simon Nathan

You've seen what I am, you know what it's like
A man with a heart that's blinded at night
Eternal chains must keep us apart

I never thought I could end up like this,
I never thought this could happen to me
Don't ask me now to share it with you
It cannot be

Black nights so long, my days torn short
They're all I have become
But you saw me, turned my soul free
And gave me strength to live

That's why I must go away from my place of sin
I'm finding a way, redeeming myself again

I never knew that life could be so cold
But here you are asking me
To share with you the pain inside my soul
I won't do this so don't ask

Delphine you are not alone
You have a family to love
So now I must go away from my place of sin
I'll find me a way, redeeming myself again

I never knew how cold my life could be
And so full of shattered dreams
I cannot give a life like this to you
Delphine you have to understand that I'm Not what you want to be
So let me go so far from all my dreams
This man is damned to live alone

Why Do I Lose The Ones I Love?

Performed by Jodie Steele
Music & lyrics by Oliver Boito
Arrangement by Joe Davison

Since you left me I have wondered
Is life really fair?
When there's no one to hold me
It's a pain I cannot bare
For destiny has taken you, oh so far away
And I'm missing you more and more everyday

It's no wonder it's hard for me to let go
For I still need you that's all there is to know
My life was complete with you
Now all I can do is dream of you
I'm asking God above
Why do I lose the ones I love?

It's hard to express this pain inside the sorrow
But the sun may shine and things will be bright tomorrow
The way I feel I can't explain
It's hard for me to say
'cause I'm living life without you and it's driving me insane

It's no wonder it's hard for me to let go
For I still need you that's all there is to know
My life was complete with you
Now all I can do is dream of you
I'm asking God above
Why do I lose the ones I love?

I'd do anything to have you near
What have I done wrong
I'd give everything to have you here
Have I got the strength to carry on?

It's no wonder it's hard for me to let go
For I still need you that's all there is to know
My life was complete with you
Now all I can do is dream of you
I'm asking God above
Why do I lose the ones I love?
Why do I lose the ones I love?
